This play features a woman who has been placed in a mental asylum against her will, and the "furies" (thoughts) that go through her mind and try to push her into madness. This play uses adult language and themes to discuss the difficult topic of severe mental illness and the abuse of the mental health system in the 18th century. While attitudes have improved toward mental illness in recent years, we still have so far to go. If you are uncomfortable with these adult themes, please see Mr. Richards to be put into study hall during that time.
