

Westbrook Walnut Grove Charger Report

STUDENTS

February 5 is "World Nutella Day".

Chocaholics know that there is chocolate and then there is Nutella. The creamy and delicious chocolate and hazelnut spread has been around since the 1940s, and despite the many imitations that have appeared in the market, Nutella continues to be the favorite guilty pleasure of chocaholics around the world.

07. New Books in the Media Center.

08. Attention Students! The faculty has decided to change the Independent Reading policy. You now have two Independent Reading options to satisfy the semester/quarter requirement: read a book at or above your maximum lexile score (as determined by the NWEA reading test) and pass the Renaissance Learning quiz (at the 60% level), just as you do now. Eight points satisfies the semester requirement, just as they do now.

Or read a book from our "Great Books" list. Reading a book from the "Great Books" list and passing the Renaissance Learning quiz (at the 60% level) satisfies the semester requirement regardless of the book's lexile and point values.

Look for the "Great Books" list to be on line at our website. Happy reading!
