11. The week of Feb. 17 - 21 is FFA Week.

Dress up days:

Thursday: Cowboy Day

Friday: Hobo Day

Activities:

Wednesday: Find the FFA President Emblem!

Thursday: Find the FFA Treasurer Emblem!

Friday: Find the FFA VP Emblem! Following "Minute to Win It"

 For each day after you've found the FFA emblem, your next step is to find the person of that FFA officer position. The first one to find the emblem should leave the emblem in that spot and find the officer & tell where it's location is at, so there can be several seekers. The seekers will receive a candy right after he/she tells the desired officer.

 Please participate in the "Minute to Win It" game! It won't be easy but it'll be fun.

To participate, pay a quarter a try. Proceeds will go to Mary & Martha's Food Shelf. Winners will win a prize or get the opportunity to be a FFA Officer or advisor.

12. Section Tournament

The Boys basketball team plays at Worthington on Sat., Feb. 22 at 12:30pm vs MCC.

21. Reminder to take care of outstanding detention. Check with an instructor for a time to take care of your obligations. Detention assigned for behavior and attendance needs to be taken care of generally within a week of assignment. The winter has made that difficult to accomplish. Penalties for not taking care of your obligations include the possibility of suspension for refusal to follow school rules, ineligibility for extracurricular activities including sports, theater, band and choir trips and especially for seniors - no senior trip and no participation in graduation. IF you are unsure of your status, write MR R a note so he can check this for you.

22. Mrs. Ross will be taking her 5th and 6th period classes on a field trip on Monday, Feb. 24. Students will all eat A lunch and then leave at 12:00. Students will return by 3:05 for routes. Please bring in your money for the trip.
