12. Reminder to take care of outstanding detention. Check with an instructor for a time to take care of your obligations. Detention assigned for behavior and attendance needs to be taken care of generally within a week of assignment. The winter has made that difficult to accomplish. Penalties for not taking care of your obligations include the possibility of suspension for refusal to follow school rules, ineligibility for extracurricular activities including sports, theater, band and choir trips and especially for seniors - no senior trip and no participation in graduation. IF you are unsure of your status, write MR R a note so he can check this for you.
