

Westbrook Walnut Grove Charger Report

STUDENTS

Today is "Pencil Day".
With so many types of pens, the humble pencil is often overlooked. That's why Pencil Day is here to remind us just how amazing a stick of graphite encased in a tube of wood can be.

Early Dismissal:

Thurs., 3/31 - Softball out at 2:50. Van leaves at 3:00.
Fri., 4/1 - Baseball out at 2:00. Bus leaves at 2:10.

The End is Near!

In a few weeks school will be out. If you have outstanding detention or other obligations or have three (3) or more F grades you will be restricted to the cafeteria during lunch. This starts on Monday, March 21. If you do not eat in the cafeteria, you are still required to be in the cafeteria during that time. Failure to comply will result in parent conference and suspension. – WHR 2016 03 17

01. Lunch today: Mini Corn Dogs, baked beans, baby carrots, mixed greens, applesauce, fresh fruit, milk.

11. Help Wanted: Mr. Olson is putting together a list of students who are again looking to be rock pickers.

We have also had several requests for baby sitters.

Email to Mr. Olson (polson03@mntm.org) your name (first and last), the town you live in, your cell phone number(s), and what grade you are currently in.

*Please remember that list will be made public and sent out via email to all parents on our email list here at school.

So, if you do not want this information out in the public, do not give it to him.

Copies will be dropped off at the city offices in Westbrook and Walnut Grove.

This list will also be emailed out to area churches to be posted on their bulletin boards as well.

I will compile this list until Friday, April 1st.

Please get this information to me by 04/01/16, because it will be emailed out after that.

Call with any questions/concerns you may have. (507-859-2141)
