15. The 8th grade football team fell to the Edgerton Flying Dutchmen last night 14-0. The Chargers moved the ball well on offense, but couldn't get into the end zone. Yeng Xiong and Andrew Quade both had interceptions. Levi Yang added a quarterback sack and Andrew Quade grabbed a fumble recovery.

The 7th grade took on the Dutchmen in a scrimmage after the game, winning 36-0. The Charger defense was phenomenal holding the Dutchmen to almost zero yards. Pasyn Parker jumped on two fumbles, while Marshall Soleta forced one. Jace Paplow added an interception. Offensively Ricky Yang scored his first touchdown of the season. Jace Paplow and Nathan Ross also added two running touchdowns. Nathan Ross also connected with Sam Helmer for three TD passes. Way to Go Chargers!!

16. Please remember that if you wish to leave during your lunch time, you must have permission from your parents on file and you must sign out at the HS office. Those who do not sign out will earn 2 hours detention for leaving w/o permission.

17. There will be a meeting and rehearsal on Tuesday, Sept. 30 at 7:45 for all students gr. 7-12 who are interested in performing in a percussion ensemble. Students that are not in band will need to bring their own instrument, sticks or other things with which you can make sound (garbage cans, pails, etc.). Please let Mrs. Derickson know if you are interested so appropriate equipment can be found.

18. To those who think they need to deface the bulletin board by the band room. You don't like anyone defacing you so leave the pictures of others alone! Around here we take pride in all the things that we do as a school so if you don't see your picture on that bulletin board, get active! Thank you

19. Costumes & wigs borrowed and not returned to the Theater will cost $5 minimum and as much as $90 for specific costumes & wigs not returned.
