04. FFA NEWS:

No Fish and Wildlife practice this week.

05. SENIOR NEWS:

For many, many years seniors have been required to have their resume and cover letter in to Mrs. Ourada before the Holiday break. Every year we have 2-4 that do not get it done. This year we have 24 students that do not have their resume and cover letter turned in.

This is a graduation requirement and is expected before class trip amongst other things. Those in activities, I hold to a higher standard and I expect it done when you walk in the door on January 3rd. IF THE COVER LETTER AND RESUME IS NOT HANDED IN BY NOON ON JANUARY 3RD you are ineligible to practice AND compete until the project is completed.

SENIORS- Resume & Cover Letters are due to Mrs. Ourada By December 21. I still need them from Matt D., Chris E., Cassie J., Paige L., Micaela L., Theresa M., Remington P., Lance S., Lilly V., Sony V., MacKenzie W., Paul Y.

Cover letter only - Kevin Sanchez

15. Earth YES is taking Christmas lights. The Earth YES class is trying to recycle 1362 feet of lights to surround the school. These lights are going to the K and K in Waseca. This recycling company will remove copper from the Christmas lights. We are doing this project to show people that you can do something better with Christmas lights besides throwing them away. You can drop off your lights at the Walnut Grove Bank, Walnut Grove Elementary School, Westbrook High School, or Maynards in Westbrook. The Earth YES class thanks you for recycling your lights and improving our environment.

16. Attention Students! Don't expose yourself to malicious meanies; log yourself off of Google when you're done computing. Also, forget not that liquid or food should not be within 50 feet of our computers. Don't get detention for a simple sip.
